It is hereby stipulated and agreed between the United States of America, by and through Christopher Chiou, Acting United States Attorney by and through Supriya Prasad, Assistant United States Attorney and Michael L. Becker, counsel for Defendant ERIC CHRISTOPHER FONTENELLE JR., that the revocation hearing currently set for Wednesday, February 2, 2022 at 10:30 a.m. in Courtroom 3A before the Honorable James C. Mahan be vacated and continued to a date and time convenient to the Court but no earlier than forty-five (45) days. This stipulation is entered into for the following reasons:

1. This is a joint request by counsel for the United States and for the Defendant for a continuance.

2. The Petition for Revocation of Supervised Release alleges that the Defendant committed a new offense while under supervision.
 3. That said offense was scheduled for an arraignment in St. Tammany Parish in Louisiana on January 26, 2022, on Case No.: 5083M2021.
 4. Defendant thought he had legal representation to appear on his behalf, but that did not occur;
 5. The Louisiana Court then sent a letter to defendant's home address, which he was forced to vacate per court order due to the underlying domestic violence charge, which he did not receive until his mother recently gave it to him;
 6. Defendant contacted the Louisiana Court to appear on the warrant but learned that said court is closed due to the Mardi Gras celebration in Louisiana;
 7. Defendant plans to appear in the Louisiana Court on March 7, 2022;
 8. That the Defendant is currently being supervised in Louisiana and has been advised by counsel to report his status to his officer.
 9. Counsel has been in contact with Defendant, who does not object to this request for a continuance.
 10. That this is the third request for a continuance of the revocation hearing.

A proposed order is attached.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 28th day of February 2022.
